

STATEMENT FROM GLENN ORDWAY

“As you know, I was absent from the show on Thursday and Friday and I know that not being there today will raise some suspicions as to my whereabouts. Well, I am going to take a little time off from the show due to a family health crisis. I feel that I owe it to you the listener...the people I talk to everyday....to be frank and honest as to what I am dealing with right now in my life. Hopefully by telling you the truth first hand, it will prevent any speculation or inaccurate accounts of our story.

“This past Thursday night, my wife Sarah gave birth to a baby girl that we named Mia Grace Ordway. Unfortunately there were complications in the final stages of the delivery. As a result of those complications our baby suffered a significant trauma injury. She is presently being treated at the intensive care unit at Children’s Hospital.

“In the process, my wife Sarah also suffered an internal injury as a result of the childbirth.

“So therefore, it is important at this time for me to devote all my time and energy to helping my wife and to helping my baby get healthy. By nurturing Sarah back to health quickly, I believe that we can allow the mother and baby bonding process to happen and subsequently increase baby Mia’s chances for a recovery.

“To our friends and colleagues who have been aware of our situation and have reached out to send along their kind words and blessings.... you don’t know how much that has added to our support system. I am only sorry that I have not had the time to respond to every single one of you. But your love is clearly felt.

“As a result of this health crisis in my family, we have decided on postponing the Whiney Awards that were scheduled for next Tuesday over at the Wang Theater. But I promise you that in due time we will re-schedule the event and with God’s will and good fortune have a great evening where we can all once again have a lot of genuine laughter.

“There is no question that your prayers and thoughts are welcome but I do ask that you please respect my family’s privacy in these most difficult times. Should there be any dramatic changes in our situation, I will once again give you that update, as I have done here, first hand.

“In the meantime, you are in good hands with Pete and the boys and I will back as soon as possible.”

STATEMENT FROM JASON WOLFE

"All of us at WEEI and the Entercom family have Glenn, Sarah and Mia in our thoughts and prayers. Given these very difficult circumstances, Glenn will be taking an extended leave from the show to attend to the caring of both Sarah and Mia. At this time, I would like to ask everyone to please respect Glenn and his family's privacy. At such time as more information becomes available, we will pass it on to you."
